COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The final two consulting engineering firms were interviewed on Tuesday evening of this week. The selectmen must now pick the firm that they feel is best qualified to do the work. Although only five firms were interviewed, it is very difficult to pick a firm on the basis of an interview of an hour or an hour and a half. The firms have all done a lot of work in the field of sewer studies and all have advantages that are unique to their company. The selectmen have followed the recommended procedure for hiring a firm and now the choice must be made.

After an engineering firm has been picked, the selectmen and representatives of the firm must negotiate a contract that will cover the scope of work to be performed and the fee for the work performed. There is no great urgency in having the study made this year but the town will be in a much better position after the study is completed. All future sewer improvements and repairs can be made to best fit the needs of the town. If special federal or state grants become available, the preliminary study must be completed before a town can qualify for the special funds. I think the biggest advantage in having the study made this year is to find out how big the problem is that must be resolved by the town. I believe that many things will fall in their proper place when the scope of the sewer abatement problem is known.

The decision was made to build another wooden bridge over Chapman Brook. The bridge is stronger than the old one and erosion has been applied to help preserve the wood. Maybe complete design and cost estimates can be worked out on a permanent type structure before the bridge has to be replaced again.

CHARGE PROGRAM ON WHITE MT. NATIONAL FOREST STARTS JULY 1

Beginning July 1, and ending September 10, 1965, fees will be charged at designated Forest Service recreation areas for the first time in the history of the White Mountain National Forest. "Under the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1963, 15 campgrounds, two group camping areas, and five picnicking areas have been designated as charge areas. These areas and about 2,000 nationwide Forest Service recreation spots will be subject to fees," said Forest Supervisor G. S. Wheeler. These charge areas will be clearly posted at their respective entrances to inform the visitors that fees are charged for use of the facilities.

Visitors to the White Mountain National Forest will have several choices in payment of the fees. The Land and Water Recreation/Conservation Sticker for private vehicles will entitle the holder and all other occupants of his vehicle to enter nationwide Federal designated recreation areas. Cost of the sticker is $7.00 per year and is valid through the United States at Federal recreation areas until March 31, 1966. The purchase of the sticker is optional. Season permits may be purchased for the White Mountain National Forest at $1.25 per person 16 years and older. This seasonal permit or the Recreation/Conservation Sticker will satisfy entrance fees.

The visitors may elect to pay the required entrance fees in lieu of purchase of seasonal permit or the sticker. These entrance fees are payable daily and range from 25 cents per person 16 years or older for picnicking to 50 cents for camping. The daily entrance fee of 50 cents per person will be charged at the following designated campgrounds: Hampton, Cold River, Covered Bridge, Crocker Pond, Dobb, Copp, Dugway, Hastings Pass, Russell Pond, Sugarloaf, Waterville, White Ledge, Wild River, Wildwood, Zealand.

For group camping only at Campsite Group Area and Horner Field at Dobb, 25 cents per person will be charged daily. The entrance fees for picnicking at Dobb Campground, Hamack, Sabbath Falls, and South Pond will be 25 cents per person. Each Ranger District on the Forest is now busy with placement of signs, posters, and the continued on Page Four

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR SMH BUILDING FUND

Only encouraging words are heard in relation to the Stephens Memorial Hospital Building Fund Campaign whose Kick-Off Meeting was held at the Oxford Hills High School Gymnasium on Monday evening of this week.

In an interview with campaign director Herbert Houghton Wednesday, it was learned not only that enthusiasm is high, but that the pledges which are being made, as evidenced in part by the memorials reserved, give assurance that a substantial portion of the $225,000 goal may be reported at the first report meeting planned for Thursday evening, June 24.

All pledge cards, except for those of some non-resident families, were taken from the racks at the Kick-Off Meeting. "This is practically unheard of in a fund raising effort such as this," Mr. Houghton said. "Usually the pledge cards of many persons are left to be taken at the conclusion of a Kick-Off Meeting, and the most faithful solicitors are asked, before the end of the campaign, to visit a far larger number of families than the announced quota of not more than ten."

"Many of the solicitors who were present Monday evening were able to secure only four or five pledge cards. Those absent from the Kick-Off Meeting, who, on Thursday, asked to have the pledge cards for some families upon whom they might call, had to be disappointed."

"It is urgently important, however," Mr. Houghton said, "that these solicitors, as well as all others, attend the report meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Oxford Hills High School Gymnasium, and also Monday evening, June 28. Each person who has agreed to be a solicitor, whether soliciting or not, each captain, each mayor, each town chairman, everyone interested in any way is needed at these meetings. There is a reserved seat for each person and this seat will be empty if that person is not there."

"Much of the success of the campaign depends upon the presence of those who are taking part at each of the two report meetings. If a person is not interested in having the Stephens Memorial Hospital continue in its ability to give the wonderful care which has characterized its first eight years, he will recognize the importance of his presence with all the others who are interested."

"There may be additional pledge cards available on Thursday evening. Also the morale of the whole group is heightened by the presence of each person, just as it is lowered when one seat is empty."

"We have a long way to go in order to reach the goal. We

TRINWARD WITHDRAWS FROM SCHOOL DISTRICT DIRECTORS' RACE

In a statement this week Dr. John W. Trinward, DMD, announced his withdrawal from the contest for School District Director.

Dr. Trinward's statement: "As the reason for my seeking nomination now fails to exist, I am withdrawing from the S. A. D. race in favor of several better qualified and more able gentlemen. I do, however, urge any who would have supported me to seriously consider the selection of the six directors who will have such a profound influence on our children's future.—John W. Trinward, D. M. D."

LOCAL STUDENT HAS EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE ROLE

A college student from Bethel, who is preparing to be a teacher, is among 120 leaders of the Student National Educational Association meeting in conferences and conventions at Washington, D. C., and New York City.

Howe, a senior at Gorham State Teachers College, and State President of the National Educational Assn. of Maine, goes from Student NEA National Leadership Conference in Washington June 17-22 to a four day National Conference on Teacher Education and Professional Standards in New York June 22-25.

Stanley leaves New York City on Friday to go to Camp Kewawaydin, Timagami, Ontario, Canada, where he has summer employment as a storekeeper.

cannot afford to have any element of the campaign weakened. We need the presence of each person who has indicated his willingness to assist.

"The general public will be welcomed at the two report meetings as well. A special guest section is reserved for interested persons not directly associated with the campaign, and it is anticipated that a good number will want to share in these enthusiastic report meetings which are so vitally related to the welfare of all."

Announcement was made at the Kick-Off Meeting of the gift of $15,000 to finance the medical-surgical corridor of the wing of Stephens Memorial Hospital in memory of Perley F. and Mary A. Ripley.

H. Davidson Good, Jr., made the announcement on behalf of the Canal National Bank and Irving O. Barrows, the contractor under the wills of Mr. and Mrs. Ripley.

The administrator of the Stephens Memorial Hospital has also received a check for $77 from the class of 1965 Oxford Hills High School.

BETHEL CHURCHES COOPERATE IN SERVICES AT LITTLEFIELD BEACH

The Committee of Membership and Evangelism of the Methodist Church has planned weekly worship services at Littlefield Beach in Locke Mills. The services will be held at 9:30 a.m. each Sunday from June 28 to August 29. The churches of the community, including the Church of the Nazarene and the West Parish Congregational Church have agreed that they will help in the summer program by providing worship leaders and speakers for several of the services. The Robert Kempton family has volunteered to provide musical accompaniment and Mrs. Earl Davis has loaned her church organ for the services.

The special services have resulted from plans which were begun several months ago by the Methodist Church. The services which are designed to serve the campers at the beach area, come under the concept of "A conventional Evangelism," a term which has come into usage because the type of evangelistic effort in the service is conventional and a departure from evangelistic program of the church in the past. They are conventional in at least 3 important ways. First of all, they are services which go into the area to reach those who might not otherwise be welcomed to be the church. Secondly, the services are being held on a cooperative basis, with several churches participating. A third conventional characteristic of the service is found in the fact that laymen are conducting the services and providing a service of message.

FOREST SERVICE From One hot day in July 1, the collection of these new services will begin. "Forests" have been the opportunity to purchase their own National Conservation Service or National Wildlife Service. The National Conservation Service or the Forest Service's office here is located," said Mr. Wheeler. "All entries must be accompanied by bank draft or money order to the amount of $100 for each acre or $125 per acre over 10 years of age for each seasonal permit. For those who do not wish to buy the stock or permit, they will be offered for sale by the National Conservation Service. These permits are sold on a first-come, first-served basis and should be well ahead of the 100-acre permit if they plan

Editor Bethel Citizen:

Perhaps it is too early to be thinking of a name for the proposed new regional high school. Bethel of course will be the largest town in the district, but Andover, Newry, Greenwood, and Woodstock must also be considered. Why not call the district high school, Mollyrocket High School? Woodstock has its Mollyrocket Mountain and a cave where our Indian prince was supposed to have lived on one time. She has lived in Bethel and spent her last years in Andover. No doubt she knew Newry and Greenwood well. It is a name that the citizens in the entire area of the proposed school district would have a common interest. Let the people think it over.

20 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE

A biologist tells how he watched an ant carrying a piece of straw which seemed a big burden for it. The ant came to a crack in the earth which was too wide for it to cross. It stood for a time, as though pondering the situation, then put the straw across the crack and walked over upon it.

What a lesson for us! The burden can become a bridge for progress.

Editor Bethel Citizen:

Perhaps it is too early to be thinking of a name for the proposed new regional high school. Bethel of course will be the largest town in the district, but Andover, Newry, Greenwood, and Woodstock must also be considered. Why not call the district high school, Mollyrocket High School? Woodstock has its Mollyrocket Mountain and a cave where our Indian prince was supposed to have lived on one time. She has lived in Bethel and spent her last years in Andover. No doubt she knew Newry and Greenwood well. It is a name that the citizens in the entire area of the proposed school district would have a common interest. Let the people think it over.

EXCELLENT CROWDS

VIEW STOCK CAR EVENTS AT PLAINS SPEEDWAY

Even heavy rains and the threat of further moisturization couldn't dampen the spirits of 17,800 screaming stock car fans at the Oxford Plains Speedway last week, according to Speedway officials. The tremendous crowds, largest on record, are believed to be a new record for attendance at a sporting event anywhere in the state.

While the storm Saturday night did curtail the action, Sunday night's clam-bang affair more than made up for the disappointment. The man of the night would have to be Ron Smith for the Farmington whiz took both the rain-out feature make-up from the previous week and the regular feature.

Asked if he had ever had any doubt of victory during the second feature, Ron said more with his eyes than he did with his tongue. He said "No" but you had to know he didn't mean exactly that when he rolled his eyes and shook his head.

While Smitty stole the cream, there was a good deal of fancy maneuvering from several corners including Wilton's Niles Gage, Dick Mason of Greene and Charlie Huff, Norway. Mason gave Smith a real run for his money as did Huff and Gage, in his "keyed-up" No. 39 rumored to be headed for the junkyard.

The season's first hospital body will be out to snap trip was made Sunday when Smith's streak.

Franklin Grange met Saturday evening, June 19th. In the absence of those officers absent Mrs. Verna Swan substituted as secretary and Philip Howe, chaplain. The 1st and 2nd degrees were conferred on Susan Lovejoy, Marilyn Bailey, Laurie Stearns, and Wanda Rich.

All officers are requested to meet at the home of WM Olive Davis, July 6th, to discuss the float for the anniversary.

The next regular meeting will be July 17 when the West Paris Ladies' Degree Team will confer the 3rd and 4th degrees.

Officers who worked the degrees were as follows: Master, Ellis M. Davis; Overseer, Olive Davis; Lecturer, Mark Mills; Chaplain, Philip Howe; Steward, Arthur Ring; Asst. Steward, Carl Brooks; Secretary, Verna Swan; Treasurer, Ray Harncom; Flora, Iva Beck, Pomona, Evelyn Barnett; Ceres, Charlotte Cole; Pianist, Gladys McKee of West Paris; Soloists, Mr. and Mrs. Thorne of New Hampshire.

Pleasing remarks were given by members of West Paris Grange and Gerlan, N. H., Grange.
